Senator Gray, when asked about the news, answered the question by asking another: "What if it is true? The President in his message to Conress told us what his plans were, and that they ad been checked by the refusal of the Queen to copt his conditions. If the conditions have been greel to and Mr. Willis makes the request of the Provisional Government, he is simply acting within the line of his original instructions, and ere the matter ends. If the Provisional Government refuses to acquiesce, Mr. Willie's instructions are to report to this Government, and there the matter ends again. THE MOHICAN HELD IN READINESS.

San Francisco, Jan. 6.-A rumor was current here this morning that the United States steamer Mohican had left Mare Island and would proceed directly to sex, presumably for Honolulu. In answer to an to sea, presumably for Honolulu. In answer to an inquiry the United Press correspondent at the island telegraphed that the Mohican would not start to-day, as her full stores were not aboard and her coal bunkers had not yet been filled.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The Mohican, now preparing for sea at Mare Island, will not be sent to Honolulu to relieve or support the ships there. This much is learned from an authoritative source to much is learned from an authoritative source to day. The Mohican was ordered to prepare for sea day. The Mohican was ordered to prepare for sea simply to have her ready for an emergency. As no simply to have her ready for an emergency. MR. WILLIS LOOKING AFTER A CLAIM.

Washington, Jan. 6.-Minister Willis has not been ughts have not wandered to his old home and interests of his former constituents. A telelanded at San Francisco yesterday. In it Minister Willis refers to the claim of the city of Louisville for forty odd thousand dollars in the Treasury Department, the amount of which was cut down to $13,450 within the last week.

In the course of his telegram Minister Willis says he "can't easily get away from here just now."
and in addition that the understanding was, when he started for Hawaii, that the full amount claimed would be allowed. Controller Bowler, who made the decision, will probably hold up the final adjustment of the claim until he hears further from Minister Willis.

THE CORWIN NOT AT MARE ISLAND. San Francisco, Jan. 6.-The Corwin anchored off San Quentin last night, and no move was made on her until this morning. About 11 o'clock steam as got up and a start in the direction of Mare Island was made. At the barracks at Mare Island Corwin is as eagerly looked for as a vessel which has been out on a three years' cruise. The last heard from the much-looked for revenue cutter was that she had returned to anchor. The chances are she will remain at anchor until instructions en received from Washington

THE WEATHER REPORT.

A COLD WAVE SPREADS OVER THE SOUTHWEST elpoi River. In districts west of the Mississippi the weather has been generally fair. A storm of slight energy has moved northward over the Mississippi Valley and lake region. The barometer is high over the Middle and Southern Recky Mountain regions, and thence to the middle and southern Pacific coast. The temperature has fallen in the Middle Mississippi Valley, and a cold wave fallen in the Middle Mississippi Valley, and a cold wave has oversprend Oziahoma and Indian Territory, Western Arkansas and Northern Texas. Generally fair weather is indicated for the Middle Atlantic and New-England States, the southern lake region, the Onto, middle and upper Mississippi valleys, and the Western States, A decided fall in temperature is indicated for the Middle and West Gulf States.

THE CRY FOR HELP.

WHAT IS BEING DONE TO ANSWER IT.

EFFORTS OF THE WORKERS ON THE EAST SIDE -NEW PLACES OPENED FOR THE DISTRI-RUTTON OF FOOD AND CLOTHING-STARY ING MEN IN ONE STREET AND GAMBLERS AT PLAY

The Hebrew-Christian Mission of the Allen Street Presbyterian Church is at No. 123 Forsyth-st., be-tween Broome and Delancey sts. Standing upon the sidewalk yesterday and looking into the basement of a building which adjoins the mission house, one could see a crowd of men sitting around a table and playing cards and another crowd looking on.

IN THE NEXT.

'Are they trying to forget the hard times or have they money to spend?"

"Oh, they have money to spend," answered the policeman who was on duty, as he whistled care-lessly and shouted to the crowd "Move on, there!" A little further, in an adjacent block, was another group of men looking intently at a cheap painting over a small grocery store which represented in a way the horn of plenty, with some articles of diet, such as loaves of bread and plates of butter thrown in to round out the picture, as the artist believed, in a more impressive way.

"Have these men any money to spend?" asked a Tribune reporter, as he strolled back to the police-

"No," he answered, in the same listless tone, "The poor fellows, I imagine, are trying to dine off that picture. I have been here day after day, and you would be surprised to see how many famished ones stop and look at that. Go in there, though, and you will see a sight."

It was indeed a sight. There, in the basement of that mission building, was a crowd of about 400 unemployed men and women singing hymns. Many of the women had children in their arms. They were all hungry. The Rev. Herman Paul Faust was on a little platform in the rear of the room, which was poorly lighted, preaching first in German which was poorly lighted, preaching first in German and then in English, and telling the motley crowd in a sorrowful voice of his inability to meet their demands for food and clothing. As the reporter made his way to the platform the poor people appliaded him, and with smiles upon their faces welcomed him to a seat.

'They think,'' said the Rev. Mr. Faust, speaking in a low voice, "that you are an agent of some charitable society bringing them relief."

ITE HAS NOTHING TO GIVE THEM.

Then, speaking up in English so that everybody rould hear, although few understood, he said: "I have nothing with which to help these poor people. I have made a house-to-house canvass and have found whole families of six, eight and in some cases eleven persons in a condition of want, with scarcely any furniture in the house. When I have it lickets for relief I distribute them, but out of my own little salary, which is barely enough upon which to live, I can do nothing. I appeal to all American Christian citizens for help. Cold weather is bound soon to come, and then we shall see the little children, with their swollen hands and swollen feet, freezing as well as starving. I will give a list of the names of people who are most in want to those anxious to help me, and then they can send any waste food that they may have direct to the families themselves."

It has been decided to open other restaurants in Washington-st., near Battery Park, in East Twenty-third-st., in West Forty-second-st, near Tenth-ave., and in Hariem above one-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st. All these will be in working order by the end of the week, and will have each a capacity for feeding 1,000 persons a day.

ANOTHER CHANCE TO GIVE ADD.

The Rev. E. F. Perkins, of the Gospel Temperntee Mission, One-hundred-and-forty-sixth-st, near Third-ave., has been supplying 250 meals a day for the last two weeks, and is sadly in need of funds. Money, most, vegetables or bread may be sent to Money, most, vegetables or bread may be sent to the mission, or to Mr. Perkins's home, No. 613 East One-husdred-and-thirty-fourth-st.

The Sagamore Club has organized an entertainment to be given in the Harlem Opera House this evening in aid of the unemployed in the XVIIth Assembly District the Holy Cross Lyceum, at a meeting last night, decided to give the use of its building, in West Forty-third-st., for the relief of the worthy poor of Holy Cross Parish, regardless of creed or nationality, and appointed a committee of tento make the necessary arrangements for leginning the work. Those present put down their names for a certain amount of clothing, food and fuel, and some large contributions in cash were also received. One young man will investigate cases of distress in each block, and a young woman will be detailed to make collections within the same boundary.

INTEREST AMONG WELL-KNOWN WOMEN. The Charity Organization Society has sent out a circular, signed by Mrs. Pierpont Morgan, Miss Kate Bond, Mrs. W. Hurman Brown, Miss L. Next, labor tickets will be sold, ten for $1, which can be given instead of money to begging women, and will be stamped with a special number for each purchaser."

stamped with a special number for each purchaser."

The Wayfarers' Lodge of the Charity Organization Society, is giving work to 159 to 149 men daily, to about 169 of whom are given bath, supper, lodging and breakfast. Those who are lodged are, of course, homeless men who show that they deserve the help given to them by their willingness to work. In doing this the society is piling up a large quantity of kindling wood, and its relief for this class of persons must be seriously interfered with unless it can sell the product of their labor. The beat help that the citizens can give, is to send to the Wayfarers' Lodge, No. 56 West Twenty-eighth-st, their orders for kindling wood.

At the Travellers' Club, in Eighth-ave, the number of hungry and unemployed persons who sought relief was, if anything, greater than on any preceding day. The great majority of those who have received temporary succor belong to that unfortunate class of men who are obliged to walk the streets all night, not having whereon to lay their heads.

streets all night, not having whereon to lay their heads.

The treasurer of the East Side Relief Work Committee said yesterday that that organization had at present 300 men cleaning the streets who received each a dollar a day, and 259 cloakmakers at work; "but this represents," said he, "only a small percentage of those who are actually in want. Up to the present we have received in the neighborhood of $15.00, but it is all now exhausted or nearly so." He thought that if the rich people who were inclined to give would only inspect the centres of destitution themselves and see how had things really were they would be more generous.

A meeting will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the office of the Hydraulic Construction Company, No. 145 Broadway, to perfect an organization and to hear plans and details for work in behalf of the deserving poor and unemployed. Among those interested in the movement are General Daniel Butterfield, Colonel Locke W. Winchester, Charles J. Canda, T. A. Bell, David Lapsiey, Harmon H. Hart, William L. Brown and Frederic Goodwin.

PENNOYER REPLIES TO HIS CRITICS. Portland, Ore., Jan. 6.-Governor Penneyer, replying to criticisms of the people of Christmas letter that two-thirds of the people of Green are without employment, said: "In any Christmas letter that two-thirds of the people of Oregon are without employment, said: "In any sense of the word, all are employed. The tramp is employed in hunting from place to place for a job, and the mechanic out of work is employed in contemplating the sorrowful condition of his wife and children. What I meant was remunerative employment, and what I said was true. Business is paralyzed, and two-thirds of our people, if not falling behind, are making no headway. Nor will they until we have sufficient, full legal-tender currency gold, silver and Treasury notes—with which to effect ready and complete interchange of commodities."

HE KICKED HIS WIFE INSENSIBLE. THE WAY A DRUNKEN HUSBAND TREATED THE WOMAN WHO WAS TOO WEAK

TO WORK FOR HIM. Thomas Arthur, thirty-three years old, a plasterer living at No. 318 East Forty-fourth-st., was committel by Justice Voorhis in the Yorkville Court yesterday pending the result of injuries he is said to have inflicted upon his patient and long-suffering wife, Margaret. According to the evidence, Arthur has belonged to the great army of unemployed for the past few months. He sought on Tuesday last to drown his troubles in whiskey. Then he turned his drunken attention toward his poor little wife, who had borne him his two infant children, and who who had borne him his two infant children, and who was about to become a mother again. He demanded why she didn't "hustle" around and get him a good dinner. Then he pliched into her, knocking her down and sicking her in the side and stomach till unconsciousness came to her relief.

The cries of the little children attracted a neighbor who came in to see what was the matter. Then a partial realization of what he had done seemed to come to the man and he hurried away. A Flower Hospital ambulance was rung up, and soon a surgeon was working to bring Mrs. Arthur back to consciousness, though it seemed almost a pity, the neighbors said. The doctor succeeded, but he found the poor woman too badly hurt to be remoted. Neighbors looked after the babies and they enjoyed the luxury of enough to eat for the first time in weeks.

On Friday night, evidently thinking the field was clear. Arthur slipped quietly into his house, tired, hungry and sleepy. Policemen Campbell pounced upon him and locked him up. Arthur said he did not know what he was about when he assaulted his wife. She is in a serious condition.

FOR A HOT CAMPAIGN.

AN AGGRESSIVE FIGHT IN THE XIVTH CONGRESS DISTRICT.

IP REPUBLICANS WILL DO THEIR DUTY A VIC-TORY MAY BE WON.

The campaign for the special election of a Congressman from the XIVth New-York District to succeed John R. Fellows will be opened in the interest of Lemuel E. Quisg, the Republican candidate, to-morrow evening by the XXIst Assembly District organization in Shenard Hall, at Fiftyseventh-st. and Broadway. Mr. Quigg will himself address the meeting. On Tuesday evening the West Side Republican Club will assemble in the club room in the Hotel Endicott, at Eighty-second-st and Columbus-ave., and the candidate will also appear there and speak. A meeting of the Republican National Committee takes place in Washing-ton immediately following that date, and his attendance on the occasion is required. On his return, about January 13, he will enter actively into the canvass and will continue to address meetings nightly in the district until the date of the elecon, Tuesday, January 30.

The campaign promises to be one of extraordinary activity and interest in view of the existing calamthe two great parties respecting a change of the tariff laws. Mr. Quigg, as an editorial writer of The Tribune, is familiar with the great subject to be discussed, and as a ready and pleasing public speaker will be able to say much calculated to appeal to the reasoning faculties of laboring and usiness men. Though only a week has elapsed ince his candidacy was announced, upward of 150 letters have been received by him from voters who, in the XIVth District, supported Mr. Fellows, letters have been received by him from voters who, in the XIVth District, supported Mr. Fellows, or who, as residents of other districts, voted for Democratic candidates in 1822, and are now citizens of the XIVth District, declaring their determination to vote for the Republican candidate.

Mr. Quigg is a resident of the XIXth Assembly District. That organization has placed its rooms at his disposal during the campaign, and in pursuance of this courteous offer the Congress district head-quarters have been established at the organization's meeting-place, in the rooms of the Columbus Club, No. 1,773 Broadway. A campaign committee has already been organized. William Leary, so well known in the district, and indeed throughout the city, as an active, earnest, methodical Republican worker, will be in charge of many important details of the campaign, and especially of the work of conducting the speakers' bureau. After to-morrow from ten to fifteen meetings will be held injustly in the district, and already, it may be added, upward of fifty speakers of National and local reputation have offered their services. Among those who will be heard are ex-Congressman Roswell G. Horr, General George A. Sheridan, Mahlon Chance and ex-Congressman William E. Mason, of Chicago. These men will speak once or twice a day throughout the campaign.

The XIVth District, extending from Fifty-thirdst on the West Side, between Seventh-ave, and the North River, to Spayten Duyvil Point, and on the East Side from Fifty-ninth-st, and from Central Park to the Fast River.

No registration will be necessary on the part of those who have lived in the district sufficiently long to qualify them for the exercise of suffrage at the election in 1893. There will be a new registration allowed for one day only, penling the special election, but the date for registration has not yet been announced. Due publication of the date will be made. In the election of 1892 there were issues which divided the Republican vote. Taking the result in 1893, however, there is

COMMITTEE OF THIRTY TO MEET

The Committee of Thirty of the Independent unty Organization will meet at the Union Square Hotel to morrow evening to push forward the work of organizing the several Assembly districts in the city. Clubs have been formed whose houses will be the headquarters in a number of districts when the regular district organizations are ready for action.

Charles Steckler said yesterday that the pendent Counties" would have an associat every Assembly District in a short time.

A HOT FIGHT IN THE FORDHAM CLUB. If the Fordham Club is delivered into the hands the friends of John Brady were not as numerous as those of his opponent, "Phil" Golden. The fight, appears, started at the Schnorer Club, Justice William G. McCrea was elected president against the wishes of the Tammany contingent of that organization. It was a victory for the Anti-Snapper element, which was "rubbed in" when McCrea became the champion of Brady's candidacy for president of the Fordam Club. A prominent member of the club said to a Tribune reporter: "Brady was born and has always lived in the Tweaty-fourth Ward. He is a representative man, never looked for effice and decidedly more fitted for the place of president than Pittsburg Phil Golden, who has been here only three years, and whose only claim on the club is that he is a friend of Henry D. Purroy."

The Fordham Club is building a new clubhouse at High Bridge Road and Jerome-ave, at a cost of $5.00, and they expect to expend $5.00 in furnishing the house when completed.

"The object is," said another member, "to elect Golden, get control of the management of the club, then run in enough Tammany material to keep the control, and use the club for Tammany's inapper element, which was "rubbed in"

The election takes place to-morrow, and a hot fight is looked for. BROOKLYN REPUBLICANS NAME OF-FICERS. A conference of the members of the Republican County Committee for 1894 in Brooklyn was held last evening in Criterion Hall, at Fulton-st. and Grand-ave., to consider the choice of officers to be Grand-ave., to consider the choice of officers to be elected at the annual meeting on Tucsday. It was called by a committee selected by a smaller conference on Wednesday, and was attended by seventy of the 10t delegates. E. J. Kaltenbach presided and Charles Morton was secretary. The names of Benjamin F. Blair and D. M. Hurley were considered for the office of president. A bailot resulted in forty-three votes for Mr. Blair and twenty-seven for D. M. Hurley. When this was announced L. F. Fischer, who had presented the name of Mr. Hurley, movel to make the solection of Mr. Blair unanimous, and this was adopted. Mr. Blair made a brief speech of thanks. He will succeed Sheriff Suttling at the head of the committee. Mr. Hurley was elected vice-president, J. H. Neal secretary and Frank Squier treasurer.

A LADY MANAGER DISAPPEARS.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 6.-Mrs. Frank B. Clark, president of the Minnesota Woman's World's Fair Board, a familiar figure at all the gatherings of the National Board in Chicago last summer, has mysteriously disappeared, according to a story which appears in this week's issue of a Catholic paper of the Northwest. Mrs. Clark has long been a leader of society in St. Paul, and she is known as a patroness of art. Shortly after the close of the World's Fair it was announced that Mrs. Clark had gone to Dresden to remain throughout the winter. Mr. Clark did not accompany his wife. Her absence is accounted for now by a report that Mrs. Clark has gone abroad to enter a convent, and it is said that she has gone to Dresden as a preliminary to a pilgrimage to Rome, where she intends to seek admission to the Catholic Church.
